

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home. Indiana's law has been very effective for us. We used to receive several calls per week, now we receive none. The Indiana law has worked very well for us.